President's Corner

Well.. time is moving so slowly that it is hard to remember what day it is.

I really appreciate our members who are still hopeful that this will end soon. Without our get togethers we don't have a lot of activity, but we do have some!

Have you signed up for Georgia Magarrell's Santa Zoom Class? Looks like it will be fun and very affordable. For those of you who were interested in the Boot Sweeping Boogie class, that did not go due to Technical Difficulties. Georgia is working on a video of the class that we will also upload, with packet, to our website when it is completed. Sorry for the delay!

Linda O'Connell is also offering a cute Zoom class on some Christmas Gnome Ornaments. $35 will include your e packet and she will mail you two surfaces!

I have also uploaded a free Halloween Pattern to our website created by Enrica Chicche Facchinetti. She has offered it free via facebook so you may have already gotten it, but for our members that don't do facebook, or may have not seen it, I wanted to make it available. You bet Steve is already cutting some out different sizes but would be just as cute on a flat surface or clipboard!

Praying your are all safe and well!

Tugboat Talk

Dear Tugboat Toler Friends,

Well I can't believe it is already October, I still have almost no work! I have made over 400 masks and only 80 sold for money the rest were donated to various organizations, but it gave me something to do and I used up scrap fabrics in my shop which is really nice. I have been freezing and canning the abundance from the garden and reading books like crazy, and there have been lots of crocheting projects it sounds like I have been busy however it goes to show you that I have been filling time that normally goes in to my work I would much rather be working I am not a sit around person. I have not seen my kids since last Christmas and am missing them so much but they have been really great about calling and sending pictures of what they are doing, I have not done much painting so I decided to paint some small boxes to put Halloween candy in to send to my grandkids so that has been fun. I can't wait to be able to get together again with all of you, I hope you are all doing good and being productive in your own ways.

Your friend
