Hello everyone!

Wow , So much going on with our SDP. In "my" opinion, we will be ok.....we may (or may not) be part of a national society, but that does NOT mean we have to quit being "TUGBOAT TOLERS". There will be some discussion at our meeting on Sat before we paint with Monica.

I actually worked (with a task master of a tole angel) for 12 hours!!!! OH MY GOODNESS. It was like Christmas....But it is over, and I am trying to stick to FINISH one project, then I can work on a NEW one. Will be hard, some may disappear... I will be SOOO happy to be able to sit IN my paint room and actually paint.

Hope to see you all Saturday the 8th, and paint Santa with us!!!

Helen

Can't say that I am not enjoying the nip in the air as I head off to work. Fall is here, with Winter and the holidays creeping in!

This year I will have family (My side!) coming in for Thanksgiving for the first time in EVER! My sister Mary, who designed our new logo, will be staying for a few months. Winters in Washington are not as harsh as in Ohio 😊. She will be joining me at the meetings while she is here, I can't wait for her to meet you all!

Please keep an eye on the Calendar and remember to bring in your ideas for classes next year.

Monica

COMMUNITY SERVICE

I have been painting with my friends at Pinewood Manor. Just simple stuff like rocks that give them a quick project they can finish and then contribute to the outdoor garden. It is a fun way to share our favorite past time!

As October starts I will be finishing some UFO painted flowerpot turtles that got started before COVID but never got the finishing features. Getting those UFOs done makes tidying my craft room a lot easier
