New Hope Church

Hello My Friends~

Our first meeting at the NEW HOPE church went well. It is still in the middle of being remodeled but has everything we need and is nice. Thank you Vickie for working so hard to secure it for us.

All of you who loved the HOT DRY weather, your turn is over. We are now getting to enjoy the FALL, cool days, colored leaves....and Pumpkin EVERYTHING. For a lady that does not enjoy Orange.....I do love it in nature, and all the changes.

Oh LOTS of things coming up. The Seattle Convention. Looks like a LOT of fun. Cyndy and I will be up there all week. You can find us in the evenings in the "book" room. With so many of the teachers talking of producing no more "books" as none of the stores carry them, these are TREASURES . If there is one you are missing from your collection. Stop in. The prices cannot be beat. Deals Deals Deals ..the more you buy the better the price. I cannot even remember my classes....but hopefully will have them all done to share at October Meeting.

Speaking of our October meeting.....it is the MAKE IT TAKE IT! I am excited as I think it will be fun to not just teach a short class, but to get to TAKE the classes.

THE THEME FOR OUR LUNCH IS HALLOWEEN!!!! BRING SPOOKY TREATS TO SHARE, WITH NAME SIGNS...."BAT BRAINS" etc. I know Cyndy and I usually do this. But she has a show that weekend, and "I" am teaching....and just do not have the energy to do both and do a good job.

I hope everyone is thinking of who they would like, or what position they would like on the board. I know I have enjoyed all the positions so far.

Hope to see many of you at the convention.....Happy painting

Helen

Tugboat Talk

Hi everyone, we had a good meeting in September.....a small group but very fun in our nice new church are. I am looking forward to many more meetings there. Just a reminder that membership dues are coming up in October. Hope to see you all then.

Karen

It is that time of year again...snuck up on us fast. Please, we welcome your donations for our annual Christa Shores Christmas Bazaar. We have October to turn them in. You can contact Helen or Cyndy to turn them in, or sign up for a shift. It is a nice bazaar and fun to work.

Sounds of Silence

When a teacher is teaching a painting class it is music to her/his ears when the class grows silent. It tells her that students have switched to the right side of the brain....the creative side. It is very hard to teach painting as it requires a teacher to switch back and forth from left side of the brain to teach and the right side to paint the demo. But as a student you should be prepared to make that switch to your creative right side of the brain and be allowed to remain there for the class, free of distractions. There are some distractions that can't be helped but as students we can do our best to limit distractions that can cause students in class to switch out of their right side of the brain. We need to respect the teacher and fellow students by not talking, and turning cell phone off or to mute.....both will pull someone out of their creative mind and it takes time to get back into the "creative groove". Asking questions is fine but cool the chit chat.....we are older and hearing instructions is hard over someone else talking. Save the socializing for lunch break or before or after class. We may find we even get more painting done.
